& New Sort of Confidence Game Didn't Work at South Grange.

SOUTS ORANGE, N. J., Dec. 20.-William chauffeur for George M. Jeffrey

Smith, chauffeur for George M. Jeffrey of $55 Hartford road, was at work around the garage yesterday afternoon when a stanger who wore a silk hat and twirled a case appeared in the doorway with a note signed by Mr. Jeffrey saying that his friend, Mr. Witherspoon, had his permission to take out his car that afternoon, and would William kindly see that it was not in proper running order.

Insanuch as the machine could not possibly be put in order that afternoon on account of an inconvenient coat of paint william smelt a rat and politely explained the stuation to Mr. Witherspoon. The latter was much surprised to find that there was a coat of fresh paint on the car but thought it might have dried enough to permit the use of the machine. While he argued persuasively William made up his mind to consult the people in the house. As soon as he disappeared inside the back door "Witherspoon" flitted.

COLBY GETS A NEWSPAPER. Understood He Will Use the Elizabeth

Charged with having to do with an attempt to burn a four story double flat at 185 Avenue C, Bayonne, owned by Recorder Hyman Lazarus and only a few feet from police headquarters, John Graham, 18 years old, who lives with his mother on the first floor of the flat, was arrested yesterday. He will be arraigned in court this morning.

Mrs. Graham has a millinery shop in the building. When the firemen arrived they found that directly beneath the millinery shop a hole had been cut in the utilinery shop a hole had been cut in the wall flear the celling and in the opening had been placed paint palls containing har been ignited close to the palls. The police said last evening that the Grahams recently had their goods insured far above their value.

When the flames were discovered the tenants of the house fled into the prevented much damage being done.

Understeed He Will Use the Elizabeth "Times" to Fight Senator Kean.

ELIZABETH, N. J., Dec. 20.—State Senator Everett Colby is said to be the purchaser through John J. McCowan of a considerable interest in the Elizabeth Erening Times. Mr. McCowan will take the millinery shop a hole had been cut in the millinery shop a hole had been cut in the analysing editor.

The influence of Senator Colby in the management would mean the carrying of the fight for the principles for which he stands into Union county and newspaper opposition to the reelection of United States Senator John Kean in his own town.

Mr. McCowan resigned two weeks ago as assistant editor of the Elizabeth Paily Journal, the Union county Republican organ. The Erening Times has hitherto been an independent Democratic newspaper.
